

The Pearl Beach Progress Association presented an outstanding Afternoon Tea Espanola on Sunday 10 June 2018.

The concert really was a WOW event from start to spectacular end. A packed hall discovered the wonderful world of Spanish Music through the magic of strings, guitar, cajon, piano and Flamenco dance. Peter Garrity viola and his marvellous musician friends - Ziva Altman & Tinel Dragoi, violins; Daniel Morris cello; Guiseppe Zangari guitar and Byron Mark piano performed with such skill and energy taking the audience on a Spanish musical journey.

Chachy Penalver, a Venezuelan who has devoted most of her life to dance absolutely stunned the audience with her dynamic Flamenco performance, culminating in the finale when the audience gave her and the musicians a standing ovation, stomping for more!

We received lovely compliments re the Spanish inspired finger food some thought we had professional catering - thanks so much to those who prepared it, and the welcome drink of Sangria was also well received. The hall lighting was professional and enhanced the mood of each piece of music played.

Proceeds from the afternoon go toward the maintenance and upkeep of the Memorial Hall.
